

St. Katherine of Sienna School

*(1201 North Rose Street * Baltimore, MD 21213)*

St. Katherine School is a Catholic school in east Baltimore that serves children from grades pre-K through 8th. The majority of the students come from low-income families. The school provides a strong academic program with an emphasis on reading and mathematics. The academic program is supplemented by an after care program which consists of an art class, computer club, cultural enrichment activities, educational field trips, kickboxing class, and library science. NDA members serve as teacher aides and technology coordinators helping students learn how to use the computer.

Member Duties:

- Serving as technology coordinator, helping students learn to use the computer.
- Serving as a teacher's aide in kindergarten.
- Supervising lunch and recess periods.
- Chaperoning field trips.
- Teaching kickboxing classes in after-school program.
- Teaching conflict resolution skills to students.
- Recruiting parents and community leaders to volunteer their time within the schools.

Qualifications:

- Experience in early childhood education.
- Experience in instructional technology.
- Organizational and planning skills.
- Flexibility and patience.
- Good oral and written communication skills.
- Ability to take initiative.
- Professionalism (reliable, punctual, leads by behavior).